

Hey baby you know that this has been coming
This tune is so damn catchy, this is your love song
This song's so much like you, the one I've been waiting for Yeah this is true, yeah just for you
No we're not the brady bunch, as smooth as silk,
But sometimes we're close, Sometimes we fight,
Sometimes we make the neighbours wish we were mute!
But that's okay, cuz you're my Lois Lane, and I'm your Superman
When the world gets on my back, I'll always have you. You want me too
Yeah sometimes we lose the scene
Forget exactly what we mean to each other
Yeah sometimes we have our doubts
You know we always work it out!
Baby we can work it out
