

Snow Joke

A.R. Kane

Last night seen in the sky silver's (?) bright we be flying high it's just a dream it's just a dream it's just a dream and we're all dreaming

'snow joke

a little boy fell to the ground spilled his little seed he was gonna fall
it's just a dream it's just a dream

'snow joke

"He taught me to sing a song. If you want to hear it, I can sing it for you." (a sample from Stanley Kubrick and Arthur C. Clarke's film 2001: A SPACE ODYSSEY) from on the ground to overhead no space between nothing to fear don't take a chance just come with me we'll hold hands and you will see it's no joke
