Never More Than Now

I had dreams and crazy schemes Never felt this way before I had days when I god raged Never felt like this before Endless nights that end in flights Now I feel love

Never. Never. Never more than now Never. Never. Never more than now Never more than now

Paralysed by vicious lies Never felt this way before Seen hope die and grown men cry Never felt like this before Shed lonely tears and heartfelt fears Now I feel love

Never. Never. Never more than now Never. Never. Never more than now

A thing of beauty Lasts forever Stretches through all time Every endeavour

No matter how hard They might try To build you up And to bleed you dry

Never lose love. Never Never lose love. Never Ever, ever, ever

Never. Never. Never more than now Never. Never. Never more than now
