

Chase The Wind

Adrienne Bailon

Holding on to the feelings are constantly denying me
Making him a priority when he just wasn't that into me
Loving so hard loving so deep
Chasing after something that ultimately escapes me
And I am falling for so in love but I'll never have his heart

Cuz I have learned it's not worth it to love
Now I know if he wants to go then go
It's impossible to chase the wind
It's impossible to chase the wind
It's impossible to chase the wind
It's impossible to chase the wind

Empty on the inside of me cause I gave away the heart of me
He was my everything and I was just a simple [?]
I must let go it's necessary I could never catch something that Always wants to leave
I'm falling for So in love but I will never have his heart

Cuz I have learned it's not worth it to love
Now I know if he wants to go then go
It's impossible to chase the wind
It's impossible to chase the wind
It's impossible to chase the wind
It's impossible to chase the wind

He's gone away never to return and
My heart hurts but in this I have learnt
Love is patient love is kind
Love believes all love endures all

Cuz I have learned it's not worth it to love
Now I know if he wants to go then go
It's impossible to chase the wind
It's impossible to chase the wind
It's impossible to chase the wind
It's impossible to chase the wind
