World Without End

Alison Moyet

Perpetual light
Eternal rest
Grant unto her
Her soul be blessed
And her faithful heart
With all pain, depart

Lighter than air Safer in your arms Borne on the breeze Welcome in your arms World without end

Be there no doubt
Be there no fear
Within your love
Our one glad heart
Offered up to you
Our precious soul for you

How sweet the refrain Safer in your arms Hold us again Welcome in your arms World without end

May we remain
Ever in your guard
- Home again
Safely in your arms
World without end
