To Roll Like A Ball

Anni B Sweet

There was a time! There was a time! That I had written the instructions of my life I didn't know! Because I forgot! And that's the reason of the only bitter song

Yes if I knew the I'm sure I could have corrected all my mistakes Yes if I knew then time would have another value

But no, I made it all by myself Oh no, I made it hard, hard by myself

I'll let you know all my thoughts while we listen to my life soundtrack I'll sing the songs, simple words hold it inside, just because I was too shy
And I will roll like a ball having fun down the hills made by my laws
I will just burn them all

A one door key! A melody! A simple rule made on a rainy crazy trip How could I not! Realice! I had every single step to make it right

Yes if I knew them I'm sure I could have corrected all my mistakes Yes if I knew then time would have another value

But no, oh no

I'll let you know all my thoughts
