

Broken Bones

Anti-Flag

Broken bones and broken glass,
Broken hearts and broken heads.
Livin' the life.

Close my eyes try to make it last.
Outrun the wretched memories of my past.
It moves too fast.
I got no chance

A freight train racing set to crash.

Broken bones and broken glass,
Broken hearts and broken heads.
Livin' the life.
ohhhhhhhh

Broken bones and broken glass,
Broken hearts and broken heads.
Livin' the life.
ohhhhhhhh

Wake up wondering: "How' did I get here?"
Then cross my heart and say a fuckin' prayer.
Ecstasy, tears, bravery, fears,

This boat may float, but it don't steer.

Broken bones and broken glass,
Broken hearts and broken heads.
Livin' the life.
ohhhhhhhh

Broken bones and broken glass,
Broken hearts and broken heads.
Livin' the life.
ohhhhhhhh

Life's long and winding roads leading us
To a never ending trail to keep our youth.

It flashes by in lessons painfully attained.
Blood and sweat, black and blue,
Some surrender I got nothing' to surrender to.

Broken bones and broken glass,
Broken hearts and broken heads.
Livin' the life.

So now you're livin'.
So now you're livin'.

Broken bones and broken glass,
Broken hearts and broken heads.
Livin' the life.
ohhhhhhhh

Broken bones and broken glass,

Broken hearts and broken heads.
Livin' the life.
ohhhhhhhh

Close my eyes try to make it last,

Outrun the wretched memories of my past.
