

Weight of the World

Apoptygma Berzerk

Pleased to meet you, we came to drop bombs on you
Shatter illusions, connect the dots and yell the truth
They'll trade fame, sex and gold
For a piece of your soul

So no one told you they've been lying to us all along
They thought control us, 1984 is now
Imagine there's no Lennon
It might be hard, but give it a try

Deceit, it will kill ya
Defeat, it will show what you're made of Retreat, never surrender
You say you carry the weight of the world
Guess who's carrying you...
