Royal Beggars

Architects

Royal beggars Do you wanna live forever? Alone Alone Alone 'Cos we're broken All hope is dead But we're coping Somebody save our souls Like a bird in a cage

Trying to fly away Is this the price that we have to pay? Overflowing with rage Yet we still obey 'Cos we're asleep in a hurricane

Bitter lovers Let go 'Cos it's now or never Breathe in Breathe out Breathe in 'Cos we're choking And left for dead But we're coping Somebody save our souls

Are you listening? You may not have noticed We have totally lost our way Are you lost in the clouds? Or can you hold your focus? It's ourselves that we will betray

We sit on a throne waiting for god to bend the knee But we're nothing more than Royal beggars

But I'm as guilty as the next man Our eyes are open, but we're not listening
