

Well I'm not the person when you've had enough.
And I'm not the one to make you stop.
These lines unbroken, they bring me down and up.
Or I might have spoken all this up.

Such a high that won't come down.
Such a high that won't come down.
Such a high that won't come down.
Such a high that won't come down.

It's night vibration to be desirous.
Realize temptation has chosen us.
If we pound on pavement and think it's bad enough.
To live a life uncertain, can be tough.

Such a high that won't come down.
Such a high that won't come down.
Such a high that won't come down.
Such a high that won't come down.
