

Dandelion

Audioslave

Settle down now and sit with me
Let me tell you how this all came to be
A yellow flower with your pedals to the air
And flying on paper wings that brought you here
Summer rolls on in the lazy hours
An ether dream way
Of hummingbirds and clouds
Midnight swims in the cool black waves
And you in my arms as it rolls away

Little dandelion
Let your heart keep time
Now the clouds are gone
All of your tomorrows shine oooooooooooooohhh oooooooooooooohhh
All of your tomorrows shine ooooooohhh ooooooohhh
All of your tomorrows shine
