People, I was standing at my window Tears running all down my cheeks Yes, standing at my window Tears running all down my cheeks

Well, I could see the woman I`m loving Stopping everyone in the world she meets Well, standing on the corner Between 35th and Main

Well, standing on the corner, people Between 35th and Main Yeah, that's where a blind man's seen my woman People, a dumb man called her name

He said, "Oh, I`m blind You brought eyesight and made me see" "Oh, I`m blind You brought eyesight and made me see"

Yes, and the dumb man asked a question "Woman, who may your good man be?"
Yes, I`m standing by trembling, people
People, my heart`s laying in my hand

I`m standing by trembling, darling With my heart`s laying in my hand Well, I could hear my baby say "Lord, I ain`t got no man"
