

(If I Was Only) Welcomed In

Bebe & Cece Winans

I would be so honored
There's so much to tell you my love
I'd give to make it better
If I was only welcomed in

I could take the sorrow
Replace it all with laughter, it's true
I have so much to show you
If I was only welcomed in

If I was only welcomed in
Promise I will keep
These persons I will be
A friend, a help, a lover
If I was only welcomed in

I want so much to hold you
If I was only welcomed in

Now circumstance seems to me
Would cause a need, a void so deep
Take a chance and find everything
You need right here in me (right here in me)

I would be so honored
There's so much to tell you my love
I'd give to make it better
If I was only welcomed in

If I was only welcomed in
Promise I will keep
These persons I will be
A friend, a help, and a lover
If I was only welcomed in

It would be an honor
To be your heart's protector
From all the hurts awaiting
If I was only welcomed in
Yes I would be so grateful
And we would be so happy
We'd walk this way together
If I was only welcomed in

I'd just love you If I was only welcomed in
