

Emmaline

Bodyjar

Where was the place where it all began?
I know it welcomes me in like no other house can
Would I be lying if I said I didn't mean it?
Said I never need it
Gonna get drunk and stay all night

Hey Emmaline
You'll be looking forever
Hey You'll never find
You'll be looking forever
Looking forever

Wake you at at nine you've been up all night.
Making you coffee we're leavin in five you'll be alright.
And sitting around is fine but I hope we're gonna make it
Know we're gonna make it
It's somewhere to go and come home to.

Hey Emmaline
You'll be looking forever
Hey You'll never find
You'll be looking forever
Looking forever
Hey Emmaline
You'll be looking forever
Hey You'll never find
You'll be looking forever
Looking forever

I can't
Wait here
Oliver's here this time
All of us here on time

Hey Emmaline
You'll be looking forever
Hey You'll never find
You'll be looking forever
Looking forever
Hey Emmaline
You'll be looking forever
Hey You'll never find
You'll be looking forever
Looking forever
