

Better Half

Boyz II Men

So many people wanna find it, find it
Crossin' our hearts wishin' and hopin'
That we see the light
Without being blinded
So we can discover the missing pieces

And when it's all said and done
We will know who to love
But for now I'm waiting for you now

So I
Stand forever waiting for something better
While running from the best
Looking for the better half
Now and ever
Thinking 'bout now or never
So I take another leap
Just to meet my better half
I've been waitin', waitin'
To run into you, to run to you

Lay down your arm
And don't try to fight it
We can't let this love keep us divided
Cuz it's too many reasons
Why we all need it
So when it knocks on our door
Just know it's invited

And when it's all said and done
We will know who to love
But for now I'm waiting for you now

So I
Stand forever waiting for something better
While running from the best
Looking for the better half
Now and ever
Thinking 'bout now or never
So I take another leap
Just to meet my better half
I've been waitin', waitin'
To run into you, to run to you

Yours Truly, Elise
