This one goes out to the world of changers Shining your light in the face of danger Oh, Tell us what you know You're a saint, you're a son, you're a promise keeper Bottom of the well, still digging down deeeper Oh, How far you're gonna go? Chasing down hope moving on dreams Taking that path Maybe it'll lead you home maybe it won't Nobody knows why your heart is broken Nobody cries while your prayers are going up But Love Does Nobody walks on the road you're paving Nobody sees all the souls you're saving But Love Does Love Does Love Does This is for the one in the frontline fighting Ringing that bell over everybody Oh, Tell us what you know Knocking down doors in the midnight alley Looking for life in the dessert valley Oh, How far you're gonna go? Chasing down hope moving on dreams Taking that path Maybe it'll lead you home

Nobody knows
why your heart is broken Nobody cries
while your prayers are going up
But Love Does

Nobody walks
on the road you're paving Nobody sees
all the souls you're saving
Oh,
But Love Does
Love Does
Love Does

You're a renegade, You're an outlaw of love's crusade And they don't know who you are

They don't know,
They don't know but...

Love Does
I'm telling you
Love Does

Somebody knows, somebody cries, somebody feels, Love Does

Somebody walks, somebody sees, somebody knows, Love Does

Love Does
