Is The Feeling Gone

Brian McKnight

Is the feeling gone, my love Is it not as strong to you and I Are we still in love Has the fire died my sweet Don't I sweep you off your feet anymore Tell me if I'm right This is killing me baby It makes me wanna cry The message you're sending me, baby Tears me up inside, tell me where Where are all the butterflies Do they no longer move inside Of you, my love Are they dead and gone Have they flown away, my sweet Or am I buried somewhere deep inside of you, my love Tell me where I am If I've done something wrong, lady What's the nature of my crime Don't keep me hanging on, baby This is the place and time

Is the feeling gone, my love Where did all this doubt come from In me, my love Have we grown apart Is it cold right here in my arms Or have you found another's heart To keep you warm Is the feeling gone, my love Is the feeling gone Tell me if I'm wrong
