

Everything To Me

Brooke Hogan

You want to go
And as you open up the door
You change your mind
And there's something to leave behind
You'll never know
All these things I feel inside
I want to show you
There's nothing I'd rather find
Oh baby I
I want to make you see
There's nothing more to fear
Cause everything's right here

I'm everything you want
I'm everything you need
And every little part of you, is a part of me
I'm everything you know
I'm everywhere you go
And I hope that you see
That you're everything to me
Oh yah
Everything to me
Yah

You talk to me
I hang on every word you say
Don't tell me no
As you turn and walk away
Don't shut me out
I'm much stronger than you know
But you're on your way
You'll be back with me someday
Oh baby I
I want to make you see
There's nothing more to fear
'Cause everything's right here

I'm everything you want
I'm everything you need
And every little part of you, is a part of me
I'm everything you know
I'm everywhere you go
And I hope that you see
That you're everything to me
Oh yah

I understand your confusion
Undeniable disillusion
I won't wait to long
And I just might move on
I'm varied by your indecision
Taken by the luck I'm missing
Just look inside you'll see
I hope there's room for me
Oh baby I
I want to make you see

'Cause everything's right here

I'm everything you are

I'm everything you need

And every little part of you, is a part of me

I'm everything you know

I'm everywhere you go

And I hope that you see

That you're everything to me
