

NO RAINBOWS

Chase Atlantic

We don't like to make the right decisions
Clearly, we enable our addictions
Fendi on our kicks get offended, you get the message
We don't live the life that we say we do in our pictures

There's no rainbows
Just white lines
Your friends don't stay close
Just waste time

Even though we'll never get to heaven we sing hallelujah
VVS's brighter than our futures
We've been singing hallelujah
Then switch bitches like it's Karma Sutra
Damn, hallelujah

Watching money fall from the distance
Quick to sell you drugs, make a business
Blow it on designer, hit that Prada store
Fall right into debt, make a death wish

There's no rainbows
Just white lines
There's no rainbows
Just white lines
The powder will become your new obsession
So your friends won't stay close
Just waste time

And even though we'll never get to heaven we sing
Hallelujah
VVS's brighter than our futures
We've been singing hallelujah
They'll switch up on us like Karma Sutra
Damn, hallelujah

There's no rainbows
Just white lines
And friends don't stay close
Just waste time

Even though we'll never get to heaven we sing
Hallelujah
VVS's brighter than our futures
We've been singing hallelujah
Then switch bitches like it's Karma Sutra
Hallelujah (Fuck)

There's no rainbows
Just white lines
The powder will become your new obsession
So your friends won't stay close
Just waste time

And even though we'll never get to heaven we sing
Hallelujah
VVS's brighter than our futures

We've been singing hallelujah
They'll switch up on us like Karma Sutra
Hallelujah
