Back Again

Chris Norman

Love is all around Tell the people, shout it out Hate is what you make Teach your children, make no mistake

Need someone tonight, To keep me warm, hold me tight Now that I'm here, I belong I'm back again

Life will make you wait You may find that it's too late Oh, if face is all you lose You don't lose anything, not much to choose

Need someone tonight, To keep me warm, hold me tight Now that I'm here, I belong I'm back again, back again, back again
