

I Want You

Chris Norman

Maybe I'm a loser
But I'm just a man
And no-one else could love you
As much as I can

And so I'll keep on fighting
Until my heart's free
Oh, tell me what to do now
To make you see,
why can't you see
I want you

I want you, I want you
I want the loving in your eyes
I want you
I want you, I want you
You know you took me by surprise
I want you

Loving you is easy
You know it ain't no lie
It's deeper than the ocean
As high as any sky

And every time you're near me
I'm filled with desire
And baby when you touch me
You take me higher, you light my fire
I want you

I want you, I want you
I want the loving in your eyes
I want you
I want you, I want you
You know you took me by surprise
I want you

Baby I been waiting
Waiting just for you
There's nothing you could ask me
That I wouldn't do

And so I'll keep on fighting
Until you're with me
I'm never giving up now
I'll make you see, oh can't you see
I want you
