

More Than I Deserve

Christian Kane

Mhmmm, Yeah

Livin' with me, it ain't easy
But I do it every day
And sometimes even now
I wanna run away.
But there you are
You're tryin' to please me,
Darlin' you stand your ground
It's more than I deserve.

I've taken more than I've been givin'.
I've taken for granted this life I'm livin'.
I don't know why heaven above
Blessed me with your sweet love.
Though I never tell you what you're worth
It's more than I deserve.

It's just your style to wear a smile,
Oh baby you wear it well,
If I had my way I'd dress you in nothin' else.
So come on here and lay down, a little while
'Cause you right now
You're more than I deserve

I've taken more than I've been givin'.
I've taken for granted this life I'm livin'.
And I don't know why heaven above
Blessed me with your sweet love.
Though I never tell you what you're worth
It's more than I deserve.

I've taken more than I've been givin'
And I've taken for granted this life I'm livin'.
And I don't know why heaven above
Blessed me with your sweet love.
I know I never tell you what you're worth
That's 'cause it's more than I deserve.

Taken more than I've been givin'
And I've taken for granted this life I'm livin'.
And I don't know why heaven above
Blessed me with your sweet love.
I know I never tell you what you're worth
It's more than I deserve.
