I Don't Need to Know

City and Colour

I don't need to know why the oceans blue or how the flowers grow I don't need to love waiting on someone to forgive me for my sins

Like my father before me I'm a working man a working man

But I don't need to believe in something that won't save my san ity

No I don't need I don't need to know no I don't need to know I don't need to know I don't need to know

I don't want to live in a world where faces change from day to day I don't want my life to be so full of doubt and misery

The years now past without a trace it's something that I'm learning to embrace how most black nights are spent awake think about how I don't want to live that way

No I don't want to live I don't want to live

I don't know but I've been told if you don't believe the devil owns your soul if this is the truth then to hell I go cause I don't need to know
