

Deepest Depths

CKY

In the deepest depths of madness
I can hear their voices sighing
Solitary emptiness at that
Thinking of you and me

I took a good licking
But not a lick from the living
You got the hell out of my life
Its such a treat to find a simple mind

In the deepest depths of madness
I can hear their voices sighing
Tried to guess but its not that
Thinking of you and me

I thought you wanted to love me
Then I realized you destroyed me
So get the hell out of my life
Because I follow a different drum

So they separated us
Stop pretending
I enjoy myself when I'm around
I have an open center of mind as long as you're not here
But they are taking over us, and no one cares

There's a heffer in front of me
Self-assured and annoying
The hand is out for the biting
My new addiction in hiding

So they separated us
So condescending
Can't show my face when you're around
