

Judy

The Corrs

Judy has her own desire
She wants to step into your fire
She wants you tangled in her web
She wants the flame never to tire

She's wanting
She's tripping
And she's falling
Can you catch her
Now she's calling
Can you hear her
She's falling down

Judy wants to love so much
Can it release her from her hurt
Judy's dreaming of your touch
She'll smother you till it's too much

She's wanting
She's tripping
And she's falling
Can you catch her
Now she's calling
Can you hear her
She's falling down

She's falling down
She wants to drown
Within your heart
She'll never part
She's falling down
