The Corrs

Judy has her own desire She wants to step into your fire She wants you tangled in her web She wants the flame never to tire

She's wanting
She's tripping
And she's falling
Can you catch her
Now she's calling
Can you hear her
She's falling down

Judy wants to love so much
Can it release her from her hurt
Judy's dreaming of your touch
She'll smother you till it's too much

She's wanting
She's tripping
And she's falling
Can you catch her
Now she's calling
Can you hear her
She's falling down

She's falling down She wants to drown Within your heart She'll never part She's falling down
