Raining In Baltimore

Counting Crows

- This circus is falling down on its knees
 The big top is crumbling down
 It's raining in Baltimore fifty miles east
 Where you should be, no one's around
- R: I need a phone call
 I need a raincoat
 I need a big love
 I need a phone call
- 2. These train conversations are passing me by And I don't have nothing to say You get what you pay for But I just had no intention of living this way
- R: I need a phone call
 I need a plane ride
 I need a sunburn
 I need a raincoat

And I get no answers
And I don't get no change
It's raining in Baltimore, baby
But everything else is the same

3. There's things I remember and things I forget I miss you I guess that I should Three thousand five hundred miles away But what would you change if you could?

I need a phone call
Maybe I should buy a new car
I can always hear a freight train
If I listen real hard
And I wish it was a small world
Because I'm lonely for the big towns
I'd like to hear a little guitar
I think it's time to put the top down

R: I need a phone call I need a raincoat
