

Sold My Soul

Danko Jones

The day the deal went down
I heard the sound of a hellhound
It's never going away
Gonna be here 'til my dying day
'Cause the wheel has stopped
And everyone's been bought
I got my price tagged, too
Started smart, but

I sold my soul, signed it on the dotted line
I sold my soul, and it was easy
I sold my soul, signed it on the dotted line
I sold my soul, and it was easy

Found of the legends of the crossroads
Found of the legend of no for no
Misunderstood what I sold
Now everything's up in smoke

Willi Brown, Johnny Shines
I've seen all the twenty-nine
I do wrong, you do right
Ha ha ha

I sold my soul, signed it on the dotted line
I sold my soul, and it was easy
I sold my soul, signed it on the dotted line
I sold my soul, and it was easy

If you wanna live the life
See your name up in lights
Go when the clock strikes twelve
With a roaching to sack
When you strum your guitar
He'll come out from the dark
Hand him your six string
Take it back and do your thing

The day the deal went down
I heard the sound of a hellhound
It's never going away
Gonna be here 'til my dying day
'Cause the wheel has stopped
And everyone's been bought
I got my price tagged, too
Started smart, but
Wooh

I sold my soul, signed it on the dotted line
I sold my soul, and it was easy
I sold my soul, signed it on the dotted line
I sold my soul, and it was easy
