Long
Are the twisted vines
Growing and knurled
Inside
Look
And you'll find
That they never Die
Long
Are the twisted vines

Deth red moon Going down Deth red moon Burning down

Cold
Is the wailing night
Gone are the tranquil skies

Look round you'll see All the longing eyes Cold Is the wailing night

Deth red moon Going down Deth red moon Burning down

And there's no escaping From this hell it's making And there's no escaping now

Deth red moon Going down Deth red moon Burning down
