

The Final Trial

Dawnrider

High in the sky near the starlights
Eternity's all you can feel
Down on the earth there is black night
But only the dark breaks the seal

Follower, go for your duty
There's no more to learn from me

This is your final call, wait for the night
Go on the mountain high, free all your mind
Near the eternal sky you'll feel the spell
The trial is then fulfilled and we can say farewell

As we say goodbye, darkness is falling
The horde must be stopped by your hands
Forever my friend, hear the calling
Riandrian pride can't be damned

Follower, go for your duty
There's no more to learn from me

This is your final call, wait for the night
Go on the mountain high, free all your mind
Near the eternal sky you'll feel the spell
The trial is then fulfilled and we can say farewell

What shall I do up there? Is there a sign?
I will fulfill my task, I know it's time
(Kurasark)
The gods will talk to you, a symbol shall come
I know you are ready now, Riandrian son

This is your final call, wait for the night
Go on the mountain high, free all your mind
Near the eternal sky you'll feel the spell
The trial is then fulfilled and we can say farewell
