Don't Break the Circle

Don't break the circle Don't break the circle Concentrate! I'm your contact link across the great divide Many voices in my ear Hold on I think there's something coming through From the other side. It's for all those who believe The chain is stronger if the lifeline is unbroken So beware the presence of The Unexpected Guest Don't break the circle Don't break the circle Unexplained Many things we thought were lost may come to light On a higher plain in the spirit world Where only a few of us possess the second sight Now the messenger awaits The chain is stronger if the lifeline is unbroken So beware the presence of The Unexpected Guest Don't break the circle Don't break the circle. The circle must keep going on and on But wait Is there one amongst us here who believes? A stranger to the sign Take care, for all the things you fear May be revealed Within the forces of the night The chain is stronger if the lifeline is unbroken So beware the presence of The Unexpected Guest Don't break the circle Don't break the circle Don't break the circle Don't break the circle The circle must keep going on and on The circle must keep going on and on
