

Black Limousine

Dragonette

He told me I was worth it and he took out his wallet
He had a nice top, a wrist watch
And how do you call it, evening jacket
He bought me this, I wanted pink
But I took red instead, that's all they had

And his phone rang and he said
I'm sorry baby, you caught me at a bad time
I'm entertaining a woman with taste and a girl with true ambition
But I would really love the two of us to talk

And I got in a black limousine
And I don't care much for the money
But you spend it on me
In the back of your black limousine
We got the time for a little bit of luxury

You're paying for my company, babe
When you're paying for my company, babe
When you're paying for my company, babe

Cash, last I checked I was overdraft
Spend more money than I guess I have
What do I do about that? It's too bad
But I get by, I got a car waiting outside
He's paying for the pictures and taking me for a ride

There's those things you have to pay for
There's things you get for free
It doesn't cost a fortune
When the fortune pays for me

Cause I'm a woman with taste
And a girl with true ambition
I guess I rather like the feeling
Of the leather in a moving car

I mean in a black limousine
I don't care much for the money
But you spend it on me
In the back of a black limousine
We got the time for a little bit of luxury

You're paying for my company, hey
When you're paying for my company, hey
When you're paying for my company, hey

I know you gotta live some, honey
I know you got a table for two
Full of confidence and money
Find out what it could do

It's true, your looks are passable
Cool, you're unattachable too
I'm a natural catch for a chap to be sat

In the back of a black limousine

I don't care much for the money
But you spend it on me
In the back of your black limousine
We got the time for a little bit of luxury

You're paying for my company, babe
When you're paying for my company, babe
When you're paying for my company, babe
