

I See Through You

Duff McKagan's Loaded

You want it all your way
I wanna throw it all away
We can just burn it down
If it don't work this time around

This honeymoon romance is a silly ego dance
Let's climb in to, tear in two and push it through
I see through you

I see through you
(Yes I do, yes I do)
You hide from the truth
(Yes you do, yes you do)
Everyone before took a chance
and slammed the door
I see through you

Let's not go through this Hell
History repeats itself
You should be saving face this time
Instead of walking the line
What would you see if you were me
I won't suffer fools,
That means you too

I see through you
(Yes I do, yes I do)
I see the truth
(Yes I do, yes I do)
Everyone one before took a chance
but slammed the door
I see through you

You always do what's best for you what's best for you has fallen through
You ask me now for one more chance to fix things
But you have no idea just what that means

I see through you
(Yes I do, yes I do)
I see the truth
(Yes I do, yes I do)
Everyone before took a chance
but slammed the door
I see through you
I see through you
(Yes I do, yes I do)
I know the truth
(Yes I do, yes I do)
Everyone before took a chance
but slammed the door
I see through you
