

Scarlet Rose

Edguy

The moment when you held me tight won't come back any more And at the end of that night you slammed the door
My dream it died away just when I saw red And nothing but a memory is left inside my head

Nothing is forever in life
But a memory believe it's true
And when I gaze in the rain
i'm crying just for you

The scarlet rose has died
Lost inside the night
Left in my mind like a dream and full of pride
The scarlet rose has died

The one and only way to catch the beauty of a dawn
Is to take a picture of the growing sun

I got that experience no one could steal away
One moment of your life is mine
I remember day by day

Nothing is forever in life
But a memory believe it's true
And when I gaze in the rain
i'm crying just for you
