

'precious' Existence

Embryo

Detachment from reality
Controls and eases my will of life
Penetrating me
Twisting all I see
Now I stand alone, lost in my thoughts
Consumed by my own soul
Caress of death reveal what I am
What lies inside my head
Penetrate in me
This fking existence
Can you see my brain? Trapped in this reality
That you still call life
Crossed by terror and addicted to pain
I want to burn my world
Loneliness is giving me the Strength to destroy my existence
Die!
So my time has come, I don't give a fk of God
Life has been my holy cross
Goodbye to hell, take my disposable soul
And rape it if you want
Pain inside my head
Still penetrate in me
Death
