

(All this noise)
Coming from the telephone
Invades my head (Invades my head)
(In a flash)
Take away the awful sound and
Clear my mind (clear my mind)

Will you hurry and take off the mask
Sure it's hard for you to breathe in there
And oh so many times you faked a smile
With each of them I find that I've been had

No matter how long I talk to the mask
Nothing ever gets through
And it's you that doesn't understand
You haven't figured out
No matter how long I talk to the mask
Nothing ever gets through
And it's you that doesn't understand

Now the time has come

Take off your mask and look around
Who's in the scene that greets your eyes?
Can you look at the view in front of you and smile?
Take off your mask and look around
Who's in the scene that greets your eyes
Only a ghost is left, it's all gone in the end

Collect emotion, force in your face
Ideas falling down upon your head
Responsibility for what you say
I'll take it, but it is your price to pay

What should I do?
Should I get out of here?
Should I stay, stand and fight?
I don't know
I don't know
