

The Bitter End

Falling in Reverse

Let that fall

Lost for a moment in the dark
Then take my life as you say

Here I go starting at the edge
Holding on to the bitter end
This is it
This is me
Look over my shoulders again

As I looked onto the sky
All the pain that is in your eyes
Some things that you don't see
But you best believe that it's haunting me

It's like a nightmare

Here I go starting at the edge
Holding on to the bitter end
This is it
This is me
Look over my shoulders again

As I looked onto the sky
All the pain that is in your eyes
Some things that you don't see
But you best believe that it's haunting me

I will fight
I will fight
This is why I'm guilty
Get away, get away
I just wanna be happy

I can fly
I can fly
This is why I'm guilty
Get away, get away
I just wanna be happy

I board a missile that I call my soul
And searching makes me old
Seeking the ocean in an empty boat

I board a missile that I call my soul
And searching makes me old
Seeking the ocean in an empty boat

Here I go starting at the edge
Holding on to the bitter end
This is it
This is me
Look over my shoulders again

As I looked onto the sky
All the pain that is in your eyes

Some things that you don't see
But you best believe that it's haunting me
It's haunting me
