

Just Another Dream

Fastball

I thought that I was a shining star
I thought that I was a newborn king
I thought I could make the world explode
I thought I could make the ocean freeze
I knew that I wasn't thinking right
Now I know how I got it wrong
I'd take it all back but they tell me that you can't go back in time
Back in time

Climbing up the tree
To make it to the moon
Staring at the sun
Waste another day
Share it with a friend
Together on a cloud
It's just another dream

I was trapped in my hotel room
I could not get my suitcase packed
I was late for the shuttle downstairs to take me to you
But my shirts came to life and I cried

I felt like a naked man
There were no numerals on the doors
I was lost in the fog
All a sudden I was flying to another world
Another world

Climbing up the tree
To make it to the moon
Staring at the sun
Waste another day
Share it with a friend
Together on a cloud
It's just another dream

Temporarily blinded
I tried following the sound of your voice
The competent hallway collapsed and I woke up to see your face
See your face

Sleeping through the night
You never make a sound
Wonder where you go
Wonder who you are
I don't mean to pry
I know I shouldn't care
It's just another dream

Climbing up the tree
To make it to the moon
Staring at the sun
Waste another day

Just another dream
