

Oh Mary

Feeder

Maybe we should talk
Set the record straight
Put our shields back down
I never thought that I could get around you

We have our whole lives ahead
A clear open road
Been hanging on the thread
Waiting for a hand to cut me down
And I'm hoping that somehow you'll come around here

There's always been a price to pay
Forgiveness, honest regret
Maybe it's a time for change
Forgiveness

Running out of faith
With every passing moment
But there's still time to say
I never thought that I could get around, you
Hoping that I'd get a chance to tell you

There's always been a price to pay
Forgiveness, honest regret
Maybe it's a time for change
Forgiveness
Then I know, as I wait
It's so quiet as I wait alone
