

Holding onto Heaven

Foxes

Starless sky,
We've got so good at pretending
There's a side,
A side to you, that isn't running
But I don't know
Where it is that you've been hiding
But I need you tonight
But I need you tonight

R: Cos' I'm holding onto heaven
Lights fade but I won't let them
Cos' I'm holding onto heaven
When I breathe and it's only you

All these years
I've been chasing down the answers
I was here,
Always tracing out your shadows
But I need you tonight

R: Cos' I'm holding onto heaven...

I can't take it
Cos you think nobody sees what you're doing to me
I'm telling you guilt is in your eyes
I hate what you've done
What you've made me become
No sleep, face the night

R: Cos' I'm holding onto heaven...
