

A Beautiful Diversion

Franco

Am I the only one on this ride?
Am I the only one on this ride?
So leave your thoughts of everyone
It's just you the sea and the setting sun
Am I the only one on this ride?

Falling in and falling out the straight line
Never knowing this could be my
Day to live and have some fun
It's just you the sea and the setting sun
Am I the only one on this ride?

Falling in and falling out
I'm paddling in and Lord
Caught a wave all to myself
Caught a wave with no one else
Caught a wave this moment
I feel alive

Hey there how are you
Have you been this stoked before?
Water waves of pure, waves of glassy hue
So please follow through, no cleaning after you
So she'll be pure and true

The waves call out your name
Nothing feels the same
After all the pain
Release it

Ridin' the waves
Making this moment free your mind
Ridin' the waves
Making this moment free your mind
Making this moment free your mind
Let this moment free your mind
