

Behold the serpent with the venomous tongue
Im spitting buck shot
Flashing through the dust to the sun
Youve got a weapon in your head and you were born with a voice
So dont just sit back
Lets make some noise
Yeah come on
Im going to talk a bit about what living is left
In evolution revolution are you ready to fly?
A mausoleum stretching all across the land of the lost
The oppositions getting thickbut we can break them down and

Liberate - i'm not afraid to feel
Open your eyes and see
Open up
Liberate - i'm not afraid to fail
Mortality makes you free
Open your mind right now

Because right now is all youll ever know
Creation of damnation why wont you let it go?

Because lately ive been feeling kind of fucked up
Like everything i ever thought i knew was one big lie
But i knew right then i've got a different perspective
Now im giving away my heaven for a second shot at saving my life
So dont talk to me (shut up)
Because i dont listen to a word you say
Ive got my revelation
And i wont come casually
Come on

Liberate - i'm not afraid to feel
Open your eyes and see
Open up
Liberate - i'm not afraid to fail
Mortality makes you free
Open up

Open your eyes and see that you are free to live

Now open your eyes
