Laughing

Goo Goo Dolls

I wake up, I'm staring at the clock My belly hurts and my head is like a rock I get up to see what I can see Furthest I got was my black and white TV Eyewitness News brought to you at noon Oh my God, guess I got up too soon because

Oh, I feel like laughing Oh, I feel like laughing Oh, I feel like laughing All because of you All because of you

I didn't mean to wear this disguise But I can't stand the look in my eyes Oh, I didn't mean to lie I was doing what I thought was right Come on, walk right down the line You'll be walking 'til the end of time because

Oh, I feel like laughing Oh, I feel like laughing Oh, I feel like laughing All because of you All because of you

Oh, I feel like laughing Oh, I feel like laughing Oh, I feel like laughing All because of you All because of you
