

Trailed

Gossling

I've trailed you far. I've leant across this land for you.
made sure that no distance could be found, and so on and so on.
I've been your constant. And I've been your pilot.
Directed you through all of the storms that we crossed.

Oh, troubles were no worry for your eyes.
Oh, I mended all of the hard times.
Oh... And how would you have gone?
How would you have gone?
Without my shoulder to lay your head on....

Ooohhh

You left me bent to one side.
Show me that I've not wasted all of this one you.
Make me see that what I've done has been well done.
Take all of my love and show me that we've won.
Together we'll believe that we're stronger than alone.

Oh, troubles were no worry for your eyes.
Oh, I mended all of the hard times.
Oh... And how would you have gone?
How would you have gone?
Without my shoulder to lay your head on....

Ooohhh

You left me bent to one side.
