Tearless

Guardians of Time

Tearless eyes stare at me, many lives are on my mind Allowed to take lives without remorse Years ago an innocent boy, now a man with sinners hands

All of my memories seem so far away this night Like a dream fade away

Mist is decreasing, a shaddow ahead Flash in the darkness a target is schred

Woman in front of me, cold an alone Conscious erased, now she is gone What have I done, how could I be a murderer Falls to the ground still I'm tearless

All of my memories seem so far away this night Like a dream fade away
