

All I Want Is You

H & Claire

Like a river to the ocean
Love keeps bringing me back to you
An irresistable emotion
I can't deny the truth
Cos I searched far and wide
Until I realised, yeah I knew
All I want is you

I've had a change of heart
I know that I was wrong
And now there's an emptiness
That lingers on and on
Cos even after all this time
You're the one thing on my mind
I try to run away but there's no escape
My heart could never lie cos...

Now some people spend their lives
Searching for the one
Suddenly I realised the crazy thing I'd done
Cos you were standing right beside me
But like a fool I could not see
Now I need search no more
This time I feel so sure
That you're everything I need

All I want is to love you baby
All I want is to love you yeah
All I want is to love you baby

Like a river to the ocean
Love keeps bringing me back to you
And irresistable emotion
I can't deny the truth
All I want is you
