

The Devil in You

Hanoi Rocks

How does it feel to have me
Inside your head?
Double your trouble,
Keep you up all night in bed
You wanna stay inside this tune
Forever begging more
Look at the devil in you
And all those things you do
I stay a minute or two
And then you come back to me
Look at the devil in you
And all those things you do
I know you blame me too
And still you run back to me
Forever, forever begging more

A little finger
I take the whole hand
Reality disappears
Like the grains of sand
I give you dreams instead
But you aint seen nothing yet
Nothing yet come true
Still you come back to me

Look at the devil in you...

...forever, forever wanting more

You give a minute, ill take a year..

You think on time
You can depend
Pray to the angels
But the devils your best friend
You wanna stay inside this tune
Forever begging more

Look at the devil in you...

Forever, forever needing more
Forever more..
