

Dying Alone Done

Happy Days

We live
We Die
Its all part of life
This is our reality
That we cannot deny
Why does it have to be this way.
Is there no light in darkness?
Every breath i take.
Pollutes and poisons my lung
This decrepit air.
Is there no escape to this?
Its so thick
I cant breathe..
Please make it stop..
I dont want to suffer anymore..
I just want to be left alone...
To Die....
Because thats the truth about life..
We are Born alone...
And we die alone...
