

Feltham Is Singing Out

Hard-Fi

It started off alright
We'd go out Friday night
And have a drink and do whatever made us feel alright
We'd stay out all weekend
Try taking everything
But never hurt no-one and so what
You only live once - i thought
'Till I got caught

That weren't enough for you
You'd go out Monday too
And Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday 'till it all caught up with you
You're everyone's best friend
'Long as they've got something
I did not know you no more
Heartbreak - a sickness i can't see
Oh-no-no-no-no-no-no

Feltham is singing out
Feltham is singing out
Tonight a light's gone out
21 years old and out
Feltham is singing out

We all went out one night
You got us in a fight
You owed some money
To a monkey who had seen you right
You sold your furniture
So you could pay him off
They cut the power
Can't afford it you slept on the floor
You can't hold down a job
So then you had to rob
First from your mom and then your friends and then the local shop
But as a criminal
You're just no good at all
You got your collar felt
So dumb, you thought about skipping bail
Now you're in jail

Feltham is singing out
Feltham is singing out
Tonight a light's gone out
21 years old and out
Feltham is singing out

You don't like prison life
You loved to watch the sky
And you get beat and injured
End up throwing up all night
You could not take no more
So when they closed the door
Tied up your sheets - strang yourself up
And then you were no more, no more

Every day i,i,i see your face

As i walk on by past that awful place
23 hours in a cell
Each and every day just locked up living hell, living hell, living hell

Feltham is singing out
Feltham is singing out
