

Bass kicking track [4x]

We 'bout to pump through the speakers
We get nothing but respect
And hold weird devotion, the grudge of our track
For every day I live, you'll be forced to watch your back
We're darkening, producing, a boom-bass kicking track
Breaking down the system, that shall not cross my head
Any essay of resistance, will result in sudden death
We impose a new sensation, or we will kindly ask
Is your full anticipation of this boom-bass kicking track?
